devil may cry 5 super character 3 pack

iest game in my life, dont even waste your money on buying it.. More like hyperbola. The world rotates.

7/10. second best game after garfield kart. The game looks exciting, has huge potential. I love the community so far, giving it a try for sure!. I hate and love this game. The music is fun and simple, the design is simple, but not too much so. The game can be pretty dizzing though. But overall worth the buy. I put up a let's play on YouTube: <https://youtu.be/vp7FOcajJuCI>. The combat feels great, and it runs well. Lots of different weapons to choose from as well. :D. All I ask is this:

Needs some more options and explanation.

Perhaps some shareable "runs". ie sequences of parameter adjustments and movements in a file for playback.. Tried to play, can't find servers. Friend and I use a VPN. Can't connect to his. I keep getting told "Other Player Disconnect." But, he can connect to mine. So, we play 15 minutes until we get a random disconnect. I can no longer create games as the button doesn't work. Reinstalled the game and the button STILL didn't work, which is pretty darn impressive. So, we're permanently unable to play this game together.

Upside? Well, at least I didn't spend anything on it.. Good game, but the maps are kinda boring because they don't seem to change that much as you level up. a true puzzle game indeed. i feel though that they left out instructions and i think some that were obvious should stay out but others they really need to tell us. they also need to add more settings options but for the most part the Gameplay was good. you can check my videos out that i will soon be uploading to youtube on my channel at <https://www.youtube.com/user/AtomicGamerMax>. This game is really hardcore, and very fun. I would try it for a bit, and see how you like it. I have over 1000 hours on the game, and I really love our community here. I hope mega alliances get fixed though. It would help it a lot.. This is a good game and a good coop experience for two people in story mode. However the game does have some technical issues for which i am posting fixes below:

Crashing:

To fix this, you need to uncheck (disable) "Use D3D12" in options on the launcher.
You also need to set screen mode to "Full Screen Borderless Window" which is also in options on the launcher.

Sound Distortion:

In the launcher, turn off "Audio Reverb Quality."

With these fixes, the game should run fine for you.

It's a good game with a range of difficulty settings which make it easy to get into.

Some of the voice acting is fairly cheesy but it's still a good satisfying, user-friendly WWII adventure game with story coop for two players.. quote:There was only one thing I cared about this title delivering on and it failed massively at doing so."

So I got this game from CD Keys for 12 quid; having seen the shockingly bad looking gameplay videos online and read all the negative reviews, there's no way I was gonna fork out 40 quid for this game, and BOY am I glad I didn't.

I wasn't even gonna buy it at all but a combination of being desperate for a PC tennis title (annoying having to faff around booting my PS3 up every time I wanna play a tennis game - Top Spin 4, of course) and wanting to buy it to show there is an appetite out there for a tennis title made me cave in and buy it.

There's a lot wrong with this game and they've been spoken about a lot already - the lack of licenced players, etc.

As far as I'm concerned, I don't care about any of that licence stuff; I'd happily play the 'London Open Tournament' with 'Fogor Rederer' and 'Nafael Radal'.

There was only one thing I cared about this title delivering on and it failed massively at doing so.

That one thing?

The gameplay.

Top Spin 4 (yes, I'm going to be the 1,000,000th person to compare it to TS4 because, you know what? TS4 is the best simulation tennis game on the market to-date. So live with it), has already laid the foundation for how a tennis game on a gamepad should be played.

If the creators of Tennis World Tour set out to bake a wedding cake, Top Spin 4 was the perfect recipe for a basic sponge cake.

But instead, they seemingly decided to completely ignore the excellent TS4 control system in favour of creating their own.

The differences:

In TS4, timing is EVERYTHING. Do you know why this went over so well with tennis fans? Because that's exactly how it is in the real game. You can swing the racket perfectly, with text-book, Federer-esque precision towards the ball, but if you're a second too early or too late, you can shank the ball massively and miss wildly.

In TS4, you had two options for hitting the ball: you could either tap the face button or hold it down and release for more power. Whether you were tapping the face button or using the hold-to-power-up technique, in BOTH CASES, TIMING WAS EVERYTHING.

That is not the case in Tennis World Tour.

In TWT, you have the same two options for hitting the ball, i.e. tap the face button or hold-to-power-up. However, the timing seems to make NO difference whatsoever.

Tapping the face button: In TS4, the accuracy and effectiveness of your shot with this technique relied heavily on timing: in TWT, tapping the face button is considered a 'weak/safe' shot, so the ball will only ever land timidly in the middle of the court with this approach to hitting the ball. It makes NO difference how well or not you timed it.

Holding-to-power-up: This works as it did in TS4 but again, the timing makes almost no difference. In TWT, it's all about how much power you apply. Too much power, it's going out; not enough, it won't be effective enough - but AGAIN the timing makes NO difference. I would ROUTINELY be able to fill the power-bar up about 3/4 (just the right amount most times) so early that I could just lift my thumb off the face button and wait for the ball to come to me, flick the stick in the direction I want it to go and hit a perfect shot. The fact I stopped timing the power up meter before my opponent had finished hitting the ball made NO difference.

This irritates me so much because I really like one of the new ideas in this game: that players can unlock abilities like extra focus after winning so many points in a row, etc.

The creators of this game need to look at EA Sport's Grand Slam Tennis 2. This game shows that all the licences and all the swanky graphics in the world won't put a tennis game over with tennis fans if the gameplay is absolute dog♥♥♥♥♥♥♥♥

Forget everything else and focus all your attention on fixing the gameplay. Timing is everything in real tennis, and so it should be in any successful game.. Nice game to own for tower defence type games, nice game mechanics gets taxing later on, but in all a good game to play. Recommend it to Tower Defence fans!. This game was pretty creepy. Then you run into shadows coming to life and running down walls, all sorts of other wild noises and happening... Very well put together game. Anyone who likes horror or exploration in a sense will enjoy this game. Beware the scares :D. Before getting into Armor Clash you must first understand this is all done by one single person. So yes, there are many things to work on but overall this is an excellent game. It's a throwback to the Command and Conquer series, especially Red Alert and Generals. At the same time the impressive details and accuracy makes fans of military realism squeal.

Armor Clash is a nice time killer that you may find yourself going back to from time to time. It's simplistic controls and dynamic combat make for some interesting times to be had.. Great game exactly like I remembered. For those of you who gave a negative cuz you couldn't start the game up, try change the resolution of your computer to 1600x????x??? then play the game on Win7 compatibility on windowed screen(oppose to fullscreen), it works on my Win10 computer.. Do not buy this at full price, or at all to be quit frank. First off the main reason anyone would want to buy this is to play as scarface. Sorry to break it to you, but its a very very poor knockoff, his model is just a regular cuban man, with very mediocre voice lines. The little friend assault rifle will without a doubt for me is the worst assault rifle in the game. While boasting impressive damage, it has a terrible ammo pool of 40, not 400, 40. With a terrible ammo pickup. The grenade launcher attachment is decent, having better ammo pickup than the gun its attached to being its only saving grace. This assault rifle also practically has no customization, and would require an extremely specific set of skills to be even usable on any heist that lasts longer than 5 minutes. The perk deck is not at all what was shown to us, Do not think that when you take the injector you are invulnerable. You take reduced damage, but still nowhere near making it worth taking on any difficulty higher than mayhem. Overall this pack is nowhere near worth the $5.00 and left me incredibly dissappointed. It felt like a cashgrab and it really shows.. It feels like im playing a demo of a flash game.
